

What is your skate level?

We organize skates in different areas with various terrains, street or path conditions along with varying distances and skate speed. Our skate venues will carry a rating from A to F (with A being the easiest) the following information will help you rate your ability with the conditions you can expect on a listed skate.

Skate Rating	Description Of Your Skating Ability	Distance or Time	Course Conditions
A	You can skate slowly but find it difficult to go any distance or to keep up with other skaters. You can't stop without assistance of street furniture, grass or just falling down.	You skate for only a few minutes at a time without resting. You don't think of skating in terms of miles (or kilometers)	Level terrain, smooth pavement, little or no traffic in a closed course, need assistance and teaching
B	You can skate with other skaters at a slow to modest pace but can't stop without assistance	For at least 30 minutes or at least two or 3 miles but rest stops frequently	Level terrain, some traffic, closed course, assistance available
C	You can skate with other skaters at a modest to brisk pace and can stop without assistance on level terrain	For at least 30 minutes or at least 4 to 6 miles with one or two rests	Open course, some traffic, mostly level terrain, little or no assistance available
D	Can skate at Level C and can stop with confidence while going down hills or bridges	10 to 12 mile distance in about an hour at a modest to brisk pace with only a few short rests	Moderate traffic, some hills and/or curbs, occasional rough pavement
E	Can skate at Level D for more than 1 hour and can stop with confidence while going down hills or bridges. Enjoy challenging terrain	12+ mile distance skate at a brisk pace with no more than a few short rests	Traffic, hills, curbs, occasional rough pavement, the works
F	Road Warrior – Can skate at Level E for more than 1 or 2 hours, can assist other skaters with technique like stopping using a heel brake	20+ mile distance skate at a brisk pace with no more than a few short rests	Traffic, hills, curbs, occasional rough pavement, the works
